

TWICE THE CAPACITY, TWICE THE ELEGANCE
The Marvel Chateau Collection 6SMOD Represents the Height of Stylish Refrigeration

RICHMOND, Ind., February 23, 2005—Mae West famously remarked that, “Too much of a good thing is wonderful.” This is true in the stunning Chateau Collection 6SMOD wine and beverage refrigerator from MARVEL. Incorporating the features of Marvel’s Chateau Collection models in an upper and lower compartment, the 6SMOD stands tall at 68-inches and offers double the capacity—and style—of a single undercounter model.

There are three different ways to configure the 6SMOD, based upon a choice of its upper and lower compartments. Which ever way it is specified, the 6SMOD is a Chateau Collection model through-and-through, instantly recognizable by such hallmark features as its elegant styling, signature ebony interior (an industry first from MARVEL) and glide-out racks with facings crafted of the finest select maple, which can be painted or stained to complement any décor. Other features include recessed interior lighting, as well as UV-resistant glass doors to display wine and beverages within the 6SMOD.

A central display controls the upper and lower sections of the 6SMOD with digital accuracy, thanks to the built-in microprocessor thermostats which deliver consistent performance, and the 6SMOD’s best-in-class, whisper-quiet compressors.

The Chateau Collection 6SMOD is available with the 24-inch-wide, 54-bottle 6SWC wine cellar at the top or bottom, the 24-inch-wide, dual-temperature-zone 6SBAR at the top or bottom or with two 6SBARs—both top and bottom. This gives the luxury homeowner a variety of options for protecting fine vintages—and seemingly unlimited capacity for storing them as well.

MARVEL is a leading manufacturer of luxury undercounter refrigeration products, including wine cellars, beverage and wine refrigerators, outdoor refrigerators, ice machines, beer dispensers and more.
